Book Review Editor

Luetta Bollinger Coates
Editorial Assistant

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of Ohio material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be addressed to: Editor, THE REPORT, 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, Ohio 44512.

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission of the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marrieages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts and others), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (do NOT alphabetize), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular depository, etc.), abstracts of Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on publishing material. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but The Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by the contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

THE OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt, State-Chartered organization. Individuals, libraries, or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $16.00 (individuals) and $20.00 (joint members at the same address) for the calendar year. All members receive the quarterly journal, THE REPORT, and the monthly NEWSLETTER with membership.

ANCESTOR CHARTS

If you wish to have your 5-generation ancestor chart considered for publication, send a copy to Mrs. Luetta Coates, 3261 Ridge Road NE, Cortland, OH 44410. Charts submitted to OGS Headquarters are NOT automatically sent to THE REPORT for publication. These are two separate projects. Only charts of MEMBERS will be published, in the order received.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY

Books which are currently in print and available for sale will be reviewed in THE REPORT upon receipt of a gratis copy donated to the O.G.S. Library. Complete ordering instructions and price must accompany the book and be mailed to O.G.S.Headquarters. All other materials donated to the Library will be listed in the Accession List published in the monthly NEWSLETTER.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertisements will be accepted from persons, organizations or companies for services and products of a genealogical nature, and should conform to the standards and objectives of The Ohio Genealogical Society. The Society assumes no responsibility for the products or services advertised, and reserves the right to refuse unsuitable advertising.

MILITARY SCHOOL LANDS RICHLAND AND WAYNE COUNTIES

Mary Jane Henney & Maxine Kinton*

The following list covering the sales of Military School Lands in Richland & Wayne Counties, Ohio, was published in the OHIO REGISTER, published at Clinton, on Oct 13, Oct 20, Oct 27, Nov 3, Nov 17, Nov 24 and Dec 1, 1819. The accompanying article stated:

"Whereas it is provided by the second section of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, passed on the 7th day of February 1810, entitled, °An act to Amend the act, entitled An Act directing in what manner certain lands granted by Congress for the use of Schools, in the Virginia Military Tract, shall be surveyed and disposed of as follws, Viz: "If the purchaser or purchasers, his or their heirs or assigns, shall fail to make payment agreeably in the provisions of the first section of this Act, the Register shall enter upon the lands of the delingquent or delinquents, and give notice in the same manner Sheriffs may be required to do for the time being in case of the sale of lands for the debt, and shall proceed to sell the same to such person or persons as will pay the arrearages then due, and become bound for the yearly payments as they may become due thereon, agreeably to the conditions of the first sale of such tract or quarter sections, by advertising such sale at least six weeks previous to the day of sale at two public places in the towns of Mount Vernon, Mansfield and Canton. In Pursuance where of PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, That the Part of the Virginia Military District School Land, being within the County of Richland, on which the interest has not been paid agreeably in the first section of said Act, will be exposed for sale at Public Vendue in Mansfield on Tuesday the 30th day of November 1819. Sale to commence at ten o'clock a.m. And the part of said lands lying in Wayne County, the interest on which has not been paid, will be exposed for sale at Public Vendue in Wooster on Tuesday the 7th day of December, 1819. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a.m. If the owner or owners of any of the following tracts of land or any person in his or their behalf, shall pay the arrearages and costs due on such tracts prior to the day designated for sale, no such sale shall take place."

LLOYD FAMILY ADDITON

In the Fall 1985 issue of THE REPORT, page 147, the "Ohio-Bound Passengers" list includes the name David DOYD. This should be corrected to read David LLOYD. This family resided in Licking Co.,Ohio, where my great grandmother was born, as were other children. They then moved on to Iowa where David died and some of the children married. Anna (Hannah) moved on to Arvonia Tp., Osage Co.,Kansas, and she is buried there. The names of the children listed match the children of the David LLOYD family.

JOSEPH WRIGHT FAMILY BIBLE

Donald G. Armstrong*

Joseph Wright's Bible turned up in the papers of my mother, Marian Wright Armstrong, after her death in 1981. It is leather bound, approximately 11" x 9" x 3", published by M'Carty & Davis, Philadelphia, 1831. On the first flyleaf is the inscription : "Joseph Wright his Book." On the second flyleaf is: "This Bible is for Joseph Wright Mather son of Thomas Mather wen we are done with it Given him by his Grand Father and Grand Mother Joseph Wright and Rebecca Wright." Four pages of family records give births, marriages and deaths from 1638 through 1879.

Also in my mother's papers was a transcript of a record with much the same information given in Joseph Wright's Bible, yet significantly different. It is written in pen, upon a lined, folded letter sheet with a beehive emblem embossed on the upper left corner. It is written in uniform hand, thus the document was probably originated after the last recorded date, which was 1896. It will hereafter be referred to as the "Mead Transcript" as it carries on for three generations the descendants of Joseph's daughter, Caroline Wright Mead. The Mead Transcript has substantial pre-1831 data NOT included in Joseph Wright's Bible, thus it may have been copied directly from a Bible record that pre-dated Joseph's, possibly the same one that Joseph's earlier records were copied from.

THE PRE-1831 HISTORY: As all information that predates the bible is transcription, it is proper to question the accuracy of that transcription. In fact, there are two discrepancies between the Bible and the Transcript. The Transcript, on its third line, says that Mahlon Stacy was born in 1688, whereas the Bible says 1638; and the old style birth date of Mahlon Wright in the Bible, 1712/3 is reduced to 1712 in the Transcript.

Mahlon Stacy and Joshua Wright are the earliest generation recorded in Joseph Wright's Bible. They appear to be the two English Quakers of those names who were among the 151 who signed "The Concessions and Agreements of the Proprietors, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Province of West Jersey in America," in England, in 1676.[2] Mahlon Stacy came to New Jersey on the ship "The Shield," in 1678.[3] Joshua Wright came across in 1679.[4] Joshua Wright, the son of Joshua, who married Rebecca Stacy, was a member of the New Jersey General Assembly who gained a place in New Jersey History when the Royal Governor refused to seat him, and two others, in an attempt to change the political bias of the Assembly.[5] All of the pre-1831 data has not yet been corroborated, but some has been found in secondary references.[1]

JOSEPH WRIGHT

Joseph Wright was born in New Jersey in 1777, and there he married and started his family.[6] He moved with his family to Goshen Township, Mahoning Co., (then Columbiana Co) Ohio in 1809 or 1810. He was a farmer, a Quaker, and served as township clerk, trustee and treasurer for many years.[7] He died in Goshen Township 30 August 1867.

CONNECTION TO COLUMBIANA, MAHONING & TRUMBULL CO. FAMILIES

In Goshen Township, Joseph Wright was the center of a considerable colony of his sisters, brothers-in-law, daughters, sons-in-law, and his one surviving son. The following information may help readers determine whether they have any connection to this family. All information is from the Bible, the Transcript or the Federal Census, unless otherwise noted:

ARNOLD: Joseph's sister Hannah married Levi Arnold. A Levi Arnold appears in the 1840 census for Goshen Twp., and a man of this name was township trustee in 1834-35 and a Justice of the Peace.[8] A Levi Arnold with wife Hannah was received by the Salem Ohio Quaker Monthly Meeting from Philadelphia in 1831, with children John W. & Samuel.[9]

BARBER: Isaac Barber, who came to Salem Ohio with his family about 1805, was Joseph Wright's uncle.[10]

KIDD: Joseph's daughter Mary Ann married George Kidd. A George Kidd Sr. and Jr. appear in the 1830, 1840 & 1850 census for Goshen Township.

LAYMAN: A Miriam Layman (formerly Wright) was disowned by the Salem Monthly Meeting in 1841 for marriage contrary to discipline.[11] This may have been Joseph Wright's daughter Miriam.

MATHER: Joseph's daughter Elizabeth married Thomas Mather. He is listed in the 1840 census of Goshen Twp. In 1850, he & children are listed under the name "Motter" just below Joseph & Rebecca Wright. Elizabeth had died the previous October and is listed in the 1850 Mortality Schedule. Records of the Salem Monthly Meeting give considerable data on Thomas' family, and list the children of Thomas & Elizabeth as Benjamin B., Joseph Wright, Alexander T., John, Maryann K. and James.[12]

MEAD: Joseph's daughter Caroline married John Mead and their descendants are covered in the Mead Transcript. John Mead Sr. & Jr. appear in the 1840 & 1850 census in Goshen Twp.

MEAD: A Thomas Mead, with wife Hanna & children William & Joseph, is the second entry below Joseph & Rebecca Wright in the 1850 census of Goshen Township. Hann Mead's age, 36, matches Joseph's daughter, and a Hannah Mead (formerly Wright) was disowned by the Salem Monthly Meeting in 1835 for marriage contrary to discipline.[13]

SATTERTHWAIT: Joseph's sister Rebecca married Richard Satterthwait. They were received from Philadelphia by the Salem Monthly Meeting in 1827, and the records list their children as John Wright, Barclay A., James M., Caroline Wright, Joseph W., William T., Isaac W. and Martha A.[14] In the 1840 census, Goshen Twp., there is a John Satterthwait aged 20-30 living with females 40-50, 50-60 and others younger, probably Rebecca, her son John, and other family members. In the 1850 census, Rebecca is found in Perry Twp., Columbiana Co., living with her son John and daughters Caroline & Martha. The Bible record states she died in Keokuk Co., Iowa.

THORN: Joseph's sister Mary was married to William Thorn. She is found living with Joseph, apparently widowed, in the 1860 census, Goshen Twp. There is a William Thorn in the 1820 census of Centre Twp., Columbiana Co., and another in the 1830 census of Lordstown, Trumbull Co., each with a female of appropriate age, but definite connection has not been made.

WRIGHT: Joseph's son John married Eliza Holeman, and was living in Goshen Township for the 1830 census. They moved to Greene Twp., Trumbull Co, in 1845.[15] Their children included Daniel, Rebecca, Nancy Ann, Eliza, Henry, Hannah, Martha, and possibly more. John and Eliza died in 1876 and 1884, respectively, and are buried in Greenlawn Cemetery, Greene Township, Trumbull County.[16]

WRIGHT: There were three Joseph Wright's in the 1820 census of Columbiana County, Ohio. Aside from Joseph of Goshen Twp., there was Joseph of Perry Twp., probably the one who settled near Salem Ohio in 1803, and was the father of Hugh Wright of Smith Township.[17] Joseph Wright of Hanover Twp. was the third. No connection has been made.

OHIO OFFICERS IMPRISONED AT LIBBY PRISON

Helen G. Harriss, C.G.*

This list comprises those officers who were imprisoned at Libby Prison during the winter and spring of 1864. They were removed from Richmond to Danville in the early part of May, and from thence to Macon, Savannah, Charleston, Columbia, Charlotte, Raleigh, and Goldsboro. An additional list (those names marked #) comprises the additional captures of the summer and fall campaigns. A small portion of the Libby prisoners were sent North for special exchange during the month of March and a few succeeded is escaping before reaching Georgia. ATHENS CO. PIONEER ASSOCIATION

Mary L. Bowman*

[Editor's note: Strange as it may seem, two different people submitted the same records of this association: K.Haybron Adams of Provo, Utah, and Mary L. Bowman, of Athens, Ohio. Mr. Adams' article had already been typed when Ms. Bowman's material arrived. In the interest of thanks to both contributors, the introductory material from Ms. Bowman is presented below.]

A record book containing a membership list and biographical sketches of some of Athens County's pioneers was the contribution of the Athens County Pioneer Association to the US centennial celebration in 1876. This Record Book was handwritten by Archibald B. Walker, first Secretary of the Association. Mr. Walker included, as part of the membership list, entries on birthdate, birthplace, date of arrival in Ohio, date of residency in Athens Co., and deathdate. After writing the book, Mr. Walker continued to record the members' deaths until his own demise in 1886. Thereafter, it is unknown who maintained the death entries: possibly the current Secretary. No names of members after 1876 were entered in this book, so it is assumed that a separate membership list was kept.

The Pioneer Association was founded on December 26, 1868 by twenty men who felt the need to preserve the history of the early settlement of Athens County & the southern part of Ohio. They met at the courthouse and agreed upon a constitution and by-laws. Membership in the group was open to anyone who had lived in Ohio on or before July 4, 1830.

At the first annual meeting, held on Sept.30, 1869, the constitution was amended to establish 1840 as the date of residency for membership. It seems possible that in some meeting between 1869 and 1876 the residency requirement again was amended because one of the member's arrival in Ohio was listed as 1863. However, no minutes of such a meeting or amendment have been located.

Another constitutional amendment of Sept 1869 was made to admit, with full membership without dues, all females of members' families. Reflective of the status of women in that time, their names were never included in the centennial membership list. However, accounts of a few of their lives, primarily published obituaries, are available in the Association's manuscript materials housed at Ohio University's Alden Library.

There is no doubt that the Record Book's membership list is an important research tool, but anyone using it should recognize it is a secondary source and, of more importance, should be aware that there are conflicts in some of the data. For example, the birthplace of Nathan Kinney is listed as Connecticut. Unfortunately, in every other source found on this man, his birthplace is given as Randolph Co., VT.

Some additional data may be found in various newspaper articles in the Athens Messenger.

The records of the Pioneer Association of Athens County, Ohio, are located in the Special Collectins library at Alden Library at Ohio University, Athens. This Association was formed to celebrate the centennial of the United States. The table of contents contains references to biographical sketches of early settlers, early histories of the townships and other items noted in the founding of, settlement of, and formation of Athens County. The following list of "the table of Members, and ages, Places of Nativity & dates of immigration &c" is taken from the records of the association. Spelling variations, e.g. Kahahive co.,Va., have not been changed. Extracts of the minutes of the association are published in the History of the Hocking Valley, 1883, pages 210-219. These records contain biographical sketches about the following people:

There is an interesting anecdote entitled "Novel contract for Preaching." [Would a minister today accept the same pay?] "An incident connected with early preaching among the pioneer settlements may be mentioned. A neighborhood in the lower settlement in Ames township, in which squire John Brown lived, secured the services of Elder Asa Stearns, a Free Will Baptist, to preach for them once a month during the year, to be paid with three barrels of whiskey. Mr. Stearns had an arrangement with Ebenezer Currier, at Athens, to take the whiskey and allow him therefor twenty-four dollars, to be credited to him toward the farm he had bought of Judge Currier.——The contract was faithfully carried out on all hands. - Elder Stearns visiting his little congregation every third Saturday of each month during the year, at the end of which he received his salary in whiskey, and made the transfer of it, as agreed, to Judge Currier."

GEORGE AUGUSTUS ROGERS (1736-1828) : HIS ANCESTORS & CHILDREN

of Columbiana County, Ohio

Doris Rogers Williams*

The grandparents of George A. Rogers were Thomas & Hannah (Lascelles) Rogers. They were living in Lisburn, Ireland, by Dec. 30, 1695, when the baptism of George's father, George, was recorded in the Blaris (Church of Ireland, Lisburn) register. His birth was 27 Dec 1695, as written in J.B. Leslie's unpublished "Biographical Succession List of the Clergy of Connor Diocese."

Baptisms of other children of Thomas & Hannah, found in the register, were Dorothy Mary, Nov 1696; Jane, 29 Apr 1698; Dorothy, 24 Jan 1699; Hannah, 14 Mar 1701; Thomas, 16 Oct 1702; Edward Francis, 15 Aug 1704; Henry, 25 Aug 1705; Ann, 5 Dec 1706; John, 7 Apr 1709; and Brilliana, 3 Nov 1710.

Many of these children had only a brief lifespan. The burial register gave the burial of the following children of Thomas & Hannah: Dorothy 1700; Jane 1702; Hannah 1704; Francis 1704; Thomas Jun. 1705 or 1720;John, 1709, and Brilliana 1729. Thomas Rogers Sr. was buried 2 Apr 1724, and Hannah's burial is not recorded in the Blaris register.

This particular research was initiated because a partial genealogy of the Rogers family was found in the house acquired by George Fife Rogers (1822-1906), grandson of the immigrant George, Salem Ohio in 1868. The history links this Irish clan of Rogers to their probable ancestors in Surrey Co., England. The missing one or two generations have not been found. However, it appears from much study of relevant information that Thomas Rogers was probably the son or grandson of a London Draper, and it's also probable that Thomas and some of the family went to Ireland to make a living in the growing linen industry..

Thomas lived to see his son George elected scholar at Dublin's Trinity College in 1716, receive a B.A. degree in 1717, and become an ordained Deacon in Kilmore Cathedral on 6 Sept 1719.

By 1725, Rev. George Rogers was serving as Curate at Glenavy, near the town of Antrim. George and Anne Hanna were married in Antrim on 9 Dec 1725. Anne, the daughter of Lt. Alexander Hanna and his wife Esther, was born 6 Oct 1706 in Antrim. George & Anne were living in Antrim or nearby, during his ministry at Glenavy. In the Church of Ireland parish register at Antrim, he performed two ceremonies: a marriage in 1726 and a baptism in 1729. A daughter, Rachel Rogers, was baptized on 2 Oct 1726.

In 1731, George began his appointment as Curate at Dunaghy in Antrim County, and in 1736, he served as Vicar at the Loughguile parish,(not far from Clough) a position he kept until 1763. During this time, the family settled in Clogh or Clough, a small village in the parish of Dunaghy.

George's final ministry as Rector of Dunaghy began in 1763. The appointment was made by the Bishop of Down and Connor Bishop Trail of Lisburn at the solicitation of George's friends in Lisburn. George remained at Dunaghy until his death in 1769. His will was written on 22 Jan 1762, and proved 24 July 1769. He mentions his seven living children, a marriage settlement made on 6 Dec 1725, and houses in Antrim and lands near Lisburn.

The properties he mentions were found in deeds held at the Registry of Deeds in Dublin. The houses in Antrim included 2 half tenaments and 8 acres. Anne Rogers' father, Lt. Alexander Hanna, was granted land in Antrim by Lord Viscount Massereene.[possibly as payment for military service]. The land in this deed was passed on to the descendants of George & Anne. The land was being sold by the descendants in deeds dated 30 Dec 1786 and 1 Jan 1787. [Memorial of Indented Deeds of Lease and Release, #261892]

According to a deed of sale signed 3 Apr 1789 [Memorial of Indented Deeds of Lease & Release #269890], George had taken possession of land in Lisburn 16 Apr 1741. The property included a farm tenament and land called "part Glenenore and Marlca", in all, 35 acres. The lands were situated in the parish of Lisburn and Lambeg Manor of Hillaltagh and Derryvolga. In both of these deeds, it was the children of George & Anne who were involved in the transactions. Lascelles Rogers was given the title "gentleman" and was a Linen Draper. There were no addresses given for George Rogers or William Rogers. George was in America, and William, no doubt, left Ireland.

In his will, Rev.George Rogers stated that Lascelles, his second son, was to have 100 pounds to trade in the Linen Manufacture. Concerning George, (the immigrant ancestor), he claims he has already provided for "my oldest son George in the Army."

The children of George & Anne Hanna Rogers were:

1. Rachel Rogers, b 21 Sept 1726; d 14 Nov 1810; m. John Smythe "of Belfast."
2. Hannah Rogers, b 31 Dec 1728 near Glenavy; d 31 Jan 1815;m Richard Barnsley "of Lisburn."
3. Hester Rogers, b 3 Sept 1734 in Clough; d 19 June 1822; Samuel McNaghton "of Ballycreagh."
4. George Augustus Rogers, b 19 June 1736 in Clough; d 9 Oct 1828 in Columbiana Co., Ohio; m Alice Fife.
5. Henry Rogers, b 27 June 1738; d 10 Aug 1767
6. Thomas Rogers, b 3 Mar 1739; d 11 Mar 1739
7. Anne Rogers, died young
8. Alexander Rogers, b 27 Apr 1742; d 19 June 1742
9. Lascelles Rogers, b 17 Oct 1743; d 7 Mar 1829, Belfast
10. Anne Rogers, b 3 May 1745; d 17 Feb 1823; m John Owens 3 Mar 1769, lived in Tildarg
11. William Rogers, b 3 Jan 1748; prob.left Ireland by 1787.

George A. Rogers was in America BEFORE immigrating, performing duty as a soldier in the British Army. Two separate accounts of his military career have been found; one in the biography of a grandson, Thomas P. Rogers, M.D., in "The Good Old Times in McLean County, Illinois" by Dr. E. Duis, first edition, The Leader Pub. & Printing House 1874, and the other, a history of Attorney Roger Cope, a great grandson of George, in the "History of Beaver County, Pa." edited by John W. Jordon, Volume one.

The story given in Thomas Rogers' biography states that George was a Colonel in the British Army and accompanied Gen. Edward Braddock in the battle of "Bloody Run" and that he was also with Gen. Wolfe when his army stormed the Plains of Abraham above Quebec and took the city. He was in various fights and skirmishes during the war. He resigned his commission, went back to Ireland, and in 1774, he brought his family to Frederick Co.,Maryland.

The account of his career in the Cope biography was less dramatic and only claims that he was a soldier in the British Army and was sent to America in command of a detachment of soldiers in the French & Indian War. However, a new dimension was added: George was offered cash or land for a reward and he accepted the cash. He returned to Ireland and lost it all in an ill-fated business venture.

According to "British Officers serving in America 1754-1774" by Worthington Chauncey Ford, the only George Rogers listed became an ensign in the 46th regiment on 21 Sept 1756. On 22 July 1758, he is listed as a Lieutenant in the same Regiment. In an edition of Army Lists at the National Library in England, one publication shows that George Rogers was commissioned an Ensign in the 46th Regiment of Foot, First Battalion on 21 Sept 1757, being promoted to Lieutenant in 1760, a rank he was to hold at least until 1767.

The Muster Pay lists for the Regiment were examined at the Public Records Office in London for the period 1761-1776; a class of documents, bearing reference number 12/5796. The first entry shows the unit at New York Harbor on 1 June 1762. The first muster covers several days in 1761 and at the end, bears the signature, "G.Rogers Lt." Another muster which bears George's signature as taking responsibility was dated 3 Sept 1767 and was signed at Cork, Ireland. (War Office 12/57796 PTI RC 2590 PRO).

Another reference concerning Lt. George Rogers was made in a letter from Gen. Thomas Gage to Lord Barrington in England on 22 July 1769, printed on pages 515-516 in "The Correspondence of Gen. Thomas Gage", Vol.2, Clarence Edwin Carter. He mentions that he is returning to Lord Barrington the Case of Lt. George Rogers, assigning reasons why George was not paid for commanding at Little Niagara in 1764.

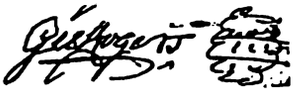
The 46th Regiment of Foot, which Lt. George Rogers commanded, was formerly the 2nd Battalion of the Duke of Cornwall Light Infantry. The Regiment went to Nova Scotia in 1757 and took part in the attack of Fort Niagara in 1759 and continued in the fight against the French in 1760.

The above evidence would by most standards be considered circumstantial. However, the abundance of evidence and the lack of any evidence to the contrary would lead one to believe the above Lt. Rogers and George Rogers of this discussion to be one and the same. The final clue is the similarity of the signatures of Lt. George Rogers on the muster rolls, and the signature of George A. Rogers on his will in Columbiana County, Ohio in 1824.

Muster Roll, June 1762



Will, 1824

It would seem that George may have followed his grandather's footsteps. It's interesting that Lt. Alexander Hanna was also in the 46th Regiment of Foot in his lifetime. George obviously terminated his military career about 1770.

About 1766, George was married to Alice FIFE, and in 1774, he and his family came to America and evidently settled in Maryland for a brief period of time. By 1781 they were in Cumberland Co. PA and George's name in listed in Vol. 6, 6th Series, Pennsylvania Archives p292, as being a Private in the 6th Company, 4th Battalion, 3rd Class, on 1 July 1781, under Lt.Col.Saml. Culbertson, Cumberland Co. Militia.

The family continued their westward journey and are on the tax list in Westmoreland Co.,Pa., in 1783. Fayette County was formed from Westmoreland in 1783, and in the state tax lists for 1785, they were living in Fayette County. It is not known whether they actually moved or whether their land became Fayette County. George Rogers was listed as a landowner in Bullskin Twp., Fayette Co., in 1788. (History of Fayette Co.,Pa., Franklin Ellis). George was next listed as head of the household in the 1790 census in the same township, with 4 males over 16, 1 male under 16, and 6 females.

George's son Alexander purchased 640 acres of land in Fairfield Township, Columbiana Co., Ohio, and about 1803, the family removed there. It is known that George Sr., Alice, and their younger children, Hester and John, travelled with Alexander and his family, and Nancy Rogers Wallihan and family. It is not known whether George Jr., Thomas and Mary came with them. Because there are no records for the deaths of George's children, Elizabeth, Rachel and Samuel, it can only be assumed that they died between 1790 and 1811, and may have died in Columbiana County.

George Rogers is listed in tax records as being a resident proprietor in 1806. He was taxed for land in Springfield Twp. in 1808. There is no record of his buying or selling these properties, but he appears to have been the only George Rogers in the county then, and also, his son-in-law, Samuel Wallihan, paid tax on land in the same township in 1808.

The family seemed to have stayed on the land Alexander acquired in Fairfield Township. Alice Fife Rogers died 2 July 1811, and there is a stone for her at the top of a hill overlooking a ravine on the property. Two unmarked stones are in what seemed to be the family cemetery. It is possible that two of their children are buried there.

On 11 Dec 1811, George purchased 122 acres of land from his son, Alexander. The land was in the SE quarter of Section 33 (Columbiana Co. Deeds v.2 p522). George wrote his will in 1824, making his youngest son, John, heir to his land. In 1826, he added a codicil to the will. George died 9 Oct 1828 aged 92 years. He was buried beside Alice. The cemetery today is known as the Morrow Farm Private Cemetery. The stones read:

George Rogers, b June 19,1735, d Oct.9,1828
Alice Rogers, b June 3, 1752, d July 5, 1811

The following information is taken from a Bible belonging to Margaret Young Stock, published in 1856 in New York City, and apparently a wedding gift to Margaret Young and David Rogers.

George Rogers was born June 30th 1736 [stone: June 19th]
Alice Rogers his wife was born 25 Dec 1751 [stone: June 3rd]

Sources of information:

J.B.Leslie's unpublished "Biographical Succession of the Clergy of Connor Diocese" (R.C.B.Library Ms.61) was used with permission of the Library & Records committee of the Representative Church Body of the Church of Ireland. The biography of Rev. George Rogers included his career and vital records on him and his family.
Mrs. Esther Coy of Massillon Ohio has kindly shared the Rogers genealogy with many relatives. She found the information in the house she lived in as a child. The genealogy covers Rev. Rogers and records on his wife & children which DO agree with the Irish records.
Mrs. Betty Preece of Indiatlantic, Fla., has also shared the family Bible of her ancestors, which includes the families of George A. & Alexander Rogers.
Other sources include Deeds involving property in Ireland are Memorials or Abstracts of the original deeds held at the Registry of Deeds, Dublin; the college record of Rev. Rogers found at University of Dublin, Trinity College; "Statistical Survey or Parochial Account of Ireland," Vol I, 1814, J.S.Mason; "British Officers Serving in America 1854-1774" by W.C.Ford, p.87, a rare book at the Virginia State Library; Ohio River Survey Tract book v.2 lists Alexander Rogers' land in Range 2, Twp.12, Sec.33, Columbiana Co., Ohio; "Biographical Record of the Counties of Wayne and Holmes, Ohio" p626-7, a biography of Hamilton Robinson; cemetery records of Wayne County; will of George A. Rogers Jr, written 1821, Beaver Co.,Pa. The name FIFE was given as Alice Rogers' maiden name in the genealogy of Roger Cope, History of Beaver Co.,Pa., by John W. Jordan, Vol.1. Her birth is given as 17 Dec 1751; the Bible gives 25 Dec 1751.
DAR Patriot Index, 1966, p578, lists George Rogers.
Blaris Parish Registers are at the Public Record Office, Belfast, Northern Ireland.

SHARON TOWNSHIP, NOBLE COUNTY
LIST OF OWNERS: 1910

Sylvia Hargrove*

A law passed in 1909 provided for the reappraisement of real estate for the year 1910. This list contains the names of property holders and the land owned. The original list, published by the Noble County Auditor's Office, also contains the part of the section, the number of acres, and the appraised value. In the case of town lots, whether an in-lot or out-lot, and the appraised value. For purposes of this list, that information has been omitted here. The original list is on file at the OGS Library.

CLUES ON THE ROUTZON FAMILY

Larry Allan*

A partial newspaper article exists, taken from a scrap book kept by Mary Oliska Jones Cate. She wrote above it, "History of Routzon family clipped from an Ohio paper by our Grandmother Clarissa Routzon Duer. A part of it was lost."

"without salary or... although as ordained minis....
church were our ancestors....
And never has our country's call "to arms" been unheeded. David ROUTZON Sr., the first of his name to settle in Old Hancock, lost one son by accidental drowning in the Missouri River, in trying to cross it bearing important government dispatches, while in the United States service in the War of 1812. His son, David Jr., gave three sons to the war of the rebellion. John, another son, father of our genial host today, lost a son in his country's service, Geo. W. Routzon, who, aged 19 years, volunteered three days after Ft. Sumpter was fired on, saw active service in the one-hundred day campaign, in western Virginia. He received an honorable discharge and then re-enlisted for 3 years or during the war, and fell, mortally wounded, at the battle of Shiloh, about 11 o'clock April 6, 1862. Every officer above him being killed the command devolved on him as First Sergeant. Bravely he rallied the men of his company...and he was no acting captain...and with the remnants fought till he fell. There was no retreat or surrender to his vocabulary. He could die but never give up.

John Routzon also had grandsons in the rebellion fighting to uphold the constitution and union. One volunteered in Indiana and died in the service. Albert, Aaron, Amos & Agustus Bund of Eagle Township, volunteered at Findlay. Albert did not pass medical examination. Amos died in the service with measles. Aaron served his term and returned with honors.

Augustus served four years and returned a physical wreck and died at age of 22 years. He is in beautiful Maple Grove cemetery, "Sleeping the years of manhood away."

Among the collateral branches of our family was James CAMPBELL, a volunteer soldier of 1812 and Samuel CAMPBELL, a soldier of the Mexican War. He was with Gen. Taylor in every battle until Gen. Scott assumed command. Then with his regiment under Scott, he assisted in capturing the City of Mexico and with the victorious...." [clipping ends here]

[Ed.note: it appears the clipping came from Hancock Co., Ohio.The family went to Hancock Co. from Columbiana Co.]

LIST OF U.S. LICENSED PILOTS & ENGINEERS AT CINCINNATI BY ACT OF CONGRESS, 30TH AUGUST, 1852

JAMES T. LLOYD

The following list was compiled in alphabetical order from James T. Lloyd's LLOYD'S STEAMBOAT DIRECTORY AND DISASTERS ON THE WESTERN WATERS (Cincinnati, Young & Klein, Inc., 1979 reprint of 1856 edition). It is a part of the "Ohio River Collection" published by Young & Klein, Inc., at 1351 Spring Lawn Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45223.

Two lists have been combined for purposes of this article: the first, a list of U.S. Licensed Pilots at Cincinnati, by Act of Congress, 30 Aug 1852; the second, Licensed Engineers. The Pilots' list gives the names of the cities which they are licensed to cover, in many cases, highly abbreviated. The Engineers' list gives only their class: 1st or 2nd.

The list may be very helpful to find families which worked on the Ohio River during the 19th Century. In many cases, pilots' families accompanied them on their journeys.

An example of a journey may be seen in this item: PITTSBURGH & WELLSVILLE REGULAR PACKET The fast running steamer "CLEVELAND", R. CALHOON Master, will run as a regular packet carrying freight and passengers between Pittsburgh and Wellsville, leaving Pittsburgh every Mon, Wed & Fri at 9 am, and Wellsville every Tues, Thurs & Sat at 7 am. (Ohio Patriot, New Lisbon, Ohio, 30 May 1845)

CENTRAL OHIO PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL CEMETERY

W. Louis Phillips, C.G.

The following information was found in a folder at the Ohio Historical Society in Columbus, designated "Central Ohio Psychiatric Hospital, Record of Burials in COPH Cemetery, 1845-1958," series 1079, GRVF 1/2. Upon scrutiny of the records, the dates on the folder should read 1842-1875. There are four cemeteries located on property owned by the State of Ohio on West Broad Street in Columbus. An article by Carol Ann Lease in the "Columbus Dispatch Magazine", 25 May 1980, provides some coverage on these four cemeteries.

A plot map in the folder entitled "Old Cemetery" depicts 108 lots giving the names of those interred, lot numbers, and what is believed to be dates of burials (month-day-year). According to a notation on this plot map, the cemetery was originally laid out in 80 rows with 11 graves to a row. The COPH burials, however, seem to occupy only the western portion of the cemetery. The institute was apparently sharing the cemetery with another institution, thought to be the Ohio Penitentiary.

The COPH burials were taken from east to west starting at the southeastern corner of the area where lot number one has the earliest interment (30 April 1858). Lot number 107 at the northwestern corner of the cemetery has the latest interment (10 Aug 1875). It is doubtful if any monuments were ever erected for any of those interred in the above mentioned lots.

The following names and dates were found on another sheet of paper in the same folder referred to above. It appears that someone copied some tombstones in what is now commonly called the "Circular or Circle Cemetery." The following comments precede the list of names: "To remember the dead of the C.O.L. [Central Ohio Lunatic] Asylum; Circular Cemetery; present site established 1875." It is unclear if these inscriptions from the tombstones were found in the same cemetery which contains the 108 lots listed above. Some of the following may not have been inmates of what used to be called the "lunatic asylum." [additions in brackets are provided from a copy made in 1978 by Annette Rader and Larry Cunningham- editor].

Also contained in the above described folder are photostatic copies of the burial records for the Columbus Psychiatric Hospital for the years 1909-1975. The original records are still at the Central Ohio Psychiatric Hospital. There are approximately 1350 names arranged chronologically giving the date of interment (month-day-year) and patient number. Occasional comments, such as disinterments, cause of death, etc., appear infrequently. There were too many entries to be presented in this article. Death certificates should be available at the Division of Vital Statistics, Ohio Department of Health, Columbus, Ohio.

NEWSPAPERS & NEWSPAPER INDEXES AVAILABLE AT OHIO HISTORICAL SOCIETY ARCHIVES-LIBRARY

Gary Arnold, O.H.S. staff

The Ohio Historical Society maintains the largest collection of Ohio Newspapers in existence. Approximately 3,000 titles, 20,000 volumes and 40,000 rolls of microfilm are included. Those newspapers available on microfilm may be borrowed through interlibrary loan. Information regarding OHS policies is available upon request. The newspaper holdings of OHS and approximately 240 other Ohio repositories are described in Stephen Gutgesell's Guide to Ohio Newspapers 1793-1973. (Columbus: Ohio Historical Society, 1976.) which is available for sale from OHS sales office. A fully current newspaper card catalog is available for use in the Archives-Library Reading room. [Ed.note: the call numbers for these titles have been omitted in this article. Names of authors and dates of publication were NOT included on the list.]

JAMES CLARK, FOUNDER OF AN OHIO CLARK FAMILY

by Walter B. Smith II*

James CLARK was born 3 Sep 1765 in Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA[1] and died 4 Sept 1852 at Mt. Washington, Anderson Tp., Hamilton Co.,Ohio, now a part of Cincinnati, aged 87. He is buried at Clough Creek Cemetery, Mt. Washington, the oldest in the county, where his stone was still legible in 1983.He was the 2nd son of Continental soldier John CLARK (1740-1779) and his wife Rebecca RICHARDSON (1746?-1810) of Nottoway Parish. He was married 4 Sep 1786 in Southampton Co. to Susanna JOHNSON[2], who was born 1 May 1765 in Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA[3], and died 22 Jan 1837 at Mt. Washington, aged 72, her grave being next to James[4]. She was the daughter of Simon JOHNSON and his wife Elizabeth (CARR?) of Nottoway Parish, and was the elder sister of Samuel JOHNSON, whom James' sister Rebecca married in 1795.

There is a family tradition that James, having just turned sixteen, participated as a fifer or drummer in the Sept-Oct 1781 Yorktown Campaign which brought the Revolutionary War to a close with Cornwallis' surrender on October 19th. A roster of the Ohio Society DAR has enshrined the drummer boy version[5]. The tradition is plausible but unproven.

There are two records of a Virginian, or Virginians, named James CLARK (or CLARKE) who were fifers in the Revolution[6]. The writer has examined the record in the National Archives pertaining to the James CLARK of Virginia who was a fifer with the Continental Artillery. Citing Volume 175, page 26, of "A List of [VA] State Soldiers and Seamen who have received Certificates for the Balance of their Full Pay, agreeable to the Act of Assembly passed November Session 1781," the record indicates that this fifer had L82.14s.9d coming to him. This sounds like a fifer's pay for a year or so of service, which would probably rule out our James. The other record seems still vaguer. It may well be that the tradition cannot be verified.

James is present in the Southampton County land and personal property tax lists from 1787 through 1796, his move from Virigina to Ohio occurring in 1797. He had been married in 1786, on the day after his 21st birthday. In November 1787, a year later, he sold the 50 acres which he had inherited from his father to a neighbor, Harmon HARRIS, for L30 (and thus ceased to be his mother's neighbor).[7] In 1794 he bought 17 acres from his father-in-law in Southampton County and also acquired another 23 acres.[8] He did not own slaves or cattle, only a horse, his occupation from 1780 until his move west in 1797 having been that of teacher.

James appears to have been a gifted teacher. His great-great-grandson, the late Ernest J. Clark of Baltimore, donated to the Library of the University of Pennsylvania in the 1930s a copy of an arithmetic book which James authored, produced, and used with his pupils in 1780-1797[9]. It is bound in deerskin and written with vegetable ink on well preserved rag paper. The arithmetic examples are original, and a number of them were associated with contemporary events in Virginia. They serve to illustrate educational methods in the post-Revolutionary period:

"Suppose a bird-cage to be 2 feet long, 1 foot broad, and 9 inches deep. I demand how many birds it will hold, allowing each bird 1 pottle of air?"

"Admit when Earl Cornwallis was besieged in York, there were sundry goods there of L5675 value insured at 6 1/2 per cent abatement if lost. Query: the value of short recovery?"

The book carries a formidable list of 76 headings of subjects presented. Some of the exercises verge on algebra and geometry. Each problem was neatly solved by the author. The school roster for 1790-1791, in the copy donated to the University of Pennsylvania, is given at the back.

His move to Ohio; His diary

During his twenties in Virginia, before he moved to Ohio, James was also gaining valuable legal experience. In 1785-1797, he administered one estate, served as trustee for another, appraised still another, was the auditor of accounts current for three different estates, and served as surety at a wedding. Several of the people involved may have been relatives of his wife.[10]

James at age 31 moved with his wife Susanna and their four children, then aged 9,7,5 and 3 from Southampton County to Cincinnati. They were accompanied by William MILNER and family. The journey of 700 miles took them nearly two months. It must have been particularly hard for Susanna, as she was pregnant, giving birth to their 5th child only a month and a half after they arrived in Ohio. Part of a Diary which James kept in the period, that is, containing many of his entries from 28 Feb 1797 to 25 May 1801, has survived.[11] Intriguing is the fact that entries have survived for 33 of the 49 days of the journey, which lasted from 24 Feb until 14 Apr 1797.

The diary details in vivid style the hardships, natural and human obstacles, chance kindnesses received along the way, and the sometimes extraordinary outlays of cash and possessions James had to make at frequent intervals for provisions, repairs, and help in fording. The following outline regrettably omits any of the rich description. It is given here so that better students of geography than the writer can piece together the route which the group followed:

Feb 28: came within sight of the Virginia Mountains
Mar 1 : at Cumberland Court House
Mar 2 : at the home of Thomas JOHNS
Mar 4 : passed New London [thought to be Buena Vista or Lexington VA] 130 miles north of Richmond.
Mar 9 : at the home of Mr. & Mrs. CARNEAL
Mar 15: crossed Patterson's Creek
Mar 18: crossed Howard's Creek
Mar 19: along Howard's Creek and the Greenbriar River; near Greenbriar Court House [Lewisburg VA]
Mar 20: at the home of William VARNER
Mar 23: near the Suel Mountains
Mar 24: in the Suel Mountains; near Mans Creek
Mar 25: in the Suel Mountains
Mar 26: near Gauley Mountain & the Gauley River
Mar 28: along the Kanawa River
Mar 29: at the house of William MORRIS; dealt with David MILBERN, boat builder
Mar 30: at the house of William MORRIS
Apr 2 : near Kanawa Court along the Elk River
Apr 3 : along the Elk River
Apr 5 : at the mouth of the Kanawa River
Apr 9 : floated down the river to Galliopolis
Apr 10: floating down the river
Apr 12: arrived at Columbia
Apr 14: went 5 miles up the Little Miami River; bought cabins in a place contiguous to Newtown [Anderson Township]

First Ohio Experiences

James bought his first land in Ohio 19 Apr 1797, as the following receipt bearing that date indicates: "Rec^{d} of James CLARK ten Dollars in full for the use and improvement of four acres of ground belonging to an unknown Proprietor and lying near Newtown, Hamilton Co. s/James McKINNEY."[12] Later in the year James bought 50 acres in the Mt. Washington section of Anderson Township (Cincinnati today) and in 1801, 5 1/2 more acres there, the last tract adjoining his brother-in-law, Josiah GWALTNEY.[13]

In 1798 James started teaching school at Mt. Washington, while also building a dam and a mill. His diary describes these activities. In his teaching he evidently used his arithmetic book. His mill enabled him to sell meal and corn. An account book he kept for the years 1818-1825 has survived and shows sales of meal, corn, and also whisky and considerable brandy. It is not certain how early he began operating his still; in 1817 he took out a license for doing so.[14]

James was listed as a Hamilton County voter already in 1798 and 1799.[15] In 1803, 1806 and 1809 he received commissions from the Governor of Ohio as a Justice of the Peace in Hamilton County.[16] He appeared nine times as a witness in the period 1805-1823, six times as security in 1808-1829, six times as an appraiser in 1819-1834, nine times as an executor or administrator of an estate in 1822-1832, and twice as a commissioner in 1822.[17]

Service in the Ohio State Legislature

In 1808 James was elected from Hamilton County to the 7th General Assembly of Ohio, convened at Chillicothe from 5 Dec 1808 until 20 Feb 1809.[18] He was made Chairman of the Committee to Examine and Report Unfinished Business. His report, which he presented to the House on 7 December covered such diverse subjects as "a bill for the relief of the poor," "establishing the supreme court, a court of general record in this state," "to incorporate the first Presbyterian Congregation of Dayton," "to authorize the Treasurer of the State to refund money paid on land of non-residents improperly sold for taxes," "report of a select committee on resolutions from the State of Delaware proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States," "resolution for appointing a committee to draft articles of impeachment against the Judges of the Supreme Court and President of the Third Circuit," and "resolution for appointing a committee to enquire into the expediency of repealing an act entitled, 'an act to amend an act concerning black and Mulatto persons.' "

James' voting record at the 1808-1809 session saw him associated with 27 winning and seven losing causes. He was often directed by the House to notify the Senate of the House's decisions and to deliver House documents and viewpoints to the Senate. As Chairman of the Unfinished Business Committee he noted on 15 December that the bill for the relief of the poor could now be dropped from his list, having been read on the floor the previous day. He helped the House impeach Supreme Court Justice Calvin PEASE and quash the impeachment effort against Supreme Court Justice George TOD. On 6 Jan 1809 he voted in favor of Delaware's proposed constitutional amendment to restrain the power of the Federal courts.

On 24 Jan 1809 James was directed to deliver a bill "for the prevention of certain immoral practices" to the Senate and request its concurrence (it would be interesting to know what the practices were!). He voted on 3 Feb in favor of an amendment to strike the phrase "and shall convict such offenders" from the Act for the Prevention of Certain Immoral Practices. One is reminded that Ohio still had no capital by James' presentation on January 31 of "a bill for fixing the permanent seat of government of Ohio."

On 6 Feb 1809, James voted in favor of requiring all white males over 21 years of age to perform two days of work each year on the public roads. The next day he voted to retain a provision enabling a person to be excused from any muster of the Ohio Militia in peacetime by paying $3.50 (a stiff fee in those days). On 18 February James was ordered to notify the Senate of the passage of a bill requesting Congress to negotiate a treaty with the Indians for opening a road from southern Ohio to Sandusky Bay on the Lake Erie coast of northern Ohio.

The above represents only a sampling of James' activities as a legislator. He was reelected from Hamilton County the following year for the 1809-1810 session, convened again at Chillicothe.[19] After the conclusion of his second term, he was appointed by the State Legislature on 27 Jan 1811 to be Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Hamilton County, and he continued in that capacity until 1817, for a total of seven years.[20]

Service on the Ohio Bench

Under Ohio's first contitution, that is, until the 1840s, there were only two levels of state courts: the Supreme Court and the Courts of Common Pleas. Thus, James may also be described as a Judge of the Eighth Ohio State Circuit Court. In both instances there was a presiding judge and usually three associate judges. At the Common Pleas or Circuit Court level in those days, "the President Judge, being a member of the Bar, was supposed to be learned in the law; the supposition, however, did not prevail as to his Associates, who were not lawyers. They acted as probate judges, and most of them were competent to hear the probate of wills, appoint executors and administrators, and review accounts current and final."[21]

James' chief on the Bench was Presiding Judge Francis DUNLEVY, who served 1805-1819 and was well respected. However, in 1818 the State Legislature tinkered with the court system in Hamilton County, which became politicized and highly controversial.[22] Perhaps James saw this coming and for that reason stepped down when he did.

James' court was located in those days in what is now the oldest part of downtown Cincinnati. Even along a straight line, this is a good 10 1/2 miles from where James lived. The story has been handed down in the family that James, straight as a ramrod, would ride his horse from Mt. Washington into Cincinnati to the court house in his stocking feet and with his boots strapped to his saddle so that they would not lose their shine. The early records of the court reportedly were destroyed in a riot in Cincinnati during the Civil War, and so a sampling of James' activities as Judge has not been attempted.

His Wife's Background; His Disinheritance of Son Orson

James' wife's family, the JOHNSONS, settled in the 17th century in that part of Isle of Wight County, VA, out of which Southampton County was formed in 1752. They were tobacco planters from the beginning and evidently successful ones until the late 18th century. Susanna's great-uncle, Benjamin JOHNSON (1710-1766) of Southampton County, appears to have operated a gracious plantation house.

Benjamin became personally acquainted with George WASHINGTON during the latter's extended visits to the area in 1763-1764. Washington was a witness to Benjamin's will in 1764.[23] Washington was passionately involved at that time, and for many years afterwards, in an unsuccessful investment scheme in the area. The goal was to drain Dismal Swamp, a large area straddling the Virginia-North Carolina line, and about 25 miles east of Benjamin Johnson's plantation, and reclaim the land.

James' wife Susanna was in declining health by the early 1830's. One may speculate she had little or no influence over the way James drew up his will. In December 1833 James sold one acre on Clough Creek to his son James Jr.[24] It may have been an important piece of property, and James Jr.'s acquisition of it may have been a factor in James' decision to favor his youngest son, Shelly, over James Jr. in his will. Similarly, James appears to have helped his eldest son, Orgia, early in his adult life. Less clear is James' reasoning for doing nothing special for his son Johnson under his will. And no explanation at all has been found for his disinheritance of his son Orson.

James wrote his will in July 1836, shortly before his 71st birthday. His wife's illness may have prompted him. She was dead within six months of the will's signing, and James did not mention her at all. He specified that "the land on which I now live in Anderson Township" was to be so divided that "Shelly shall have the house in which I live and the houses contiguous, with the yard and garden, also the mill with its appendages, and all the land south of the road leading from the east to the west of my land." James Jr. was "to have the remainder which lies north of the line." Further, "I give to my children Orgia, Patsy, Eliza, Nancy and Johnson all the remainder of my estate to be equally divided."[25]

In November 1836 James sold one acre and his grist mill to his son Shelly.[26] This presumably was the mill he had planned to bequeath him. In April 1838 he sold 63 acres "adjacent to George GRAY's land" to James Jr. and had the latter sign a bond concerning the use of the land.[27] This may have been the occasion for James Jr.'s move back to Anderson Township from next door Columbia Township. No further record of Judge James Clark during the remaining 14 years of his life has been found.

James left behind a monument in the form of a brick house he built for himself in 1802 in Mt. Washington, which is still (1983) standing. Located on Clough Pike and Hunley Road opposite the eastern end of Corbly Road, it is one of the oldest buildings in Anderson Township. At the time, when the Clough area was the earliest community in the township except Newtown (briefly called Mercersburg), this was an important residence. The house has no windows on its left side, and the other side has two chimneys. It was probably the first stone house built east of the Little Miami River.[28]

His Progeny

James & Susanna (JOHNSON) CLARK had children:[29]

+ 1. Patsy Clark, b 12 Jly 1787, Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co., VA

+ 2. Orgia Clark, b 27 Sep 1789, Nottoway Parish, VA

+ 3. Orson Clark, b 6 Feb 1792, Nottoway Parish, VA

+ 4. Eliza Clark, b 22 Aug 1794, Nottoway Parish, VA

5. Nancy Clark, b 29 May 1797, Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co.,OHIO, died after July 1836 (date of her father's will); she was married, 1st, to George W. STOCKTON, and 2nd, to Aaron SARGENT, both of whom lived in the Cincinnati area; evidently no children; George Stockton was commissioned in 1809 a Lieut. in the Burlington Brigade of NJ Militia.[30]

+ 6. James Clark, b 3 Feb 1800, Anderson Twp.

+ 7. Johnson Clark, b 25 May 1802, Anderson Twp.

8. German Clark, b 10 Jan 1804 in Anderson Twp., and died 14 Aug 1834, aged 30; married to -----BACHELOR[31] ; evidently had no children.[32]

+ 9. Shelly Clark, b 22 Oct 1806, Anderson Twp.

THEIR DESCENDANTS

1. PATSY CLARK

Patsy was born 18 Jly 1787 in Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA, and died after 1830 probably at or near Casstown, Miami Co.,Ohio. She was married about 1808 probably in Anderson Township, Hamilton Co.,Ohio, to David KNIGHT, who was born in 1786, probably near Garard's Fort, Pa., and died in 1851 at Casstown, Ohio, and is buried at Lost Creek Churchyard, Fletcher, Miami County, Ohio. He was the son of William KNIGHT and his wife Priscilla CORBLY, older sister of the Rev. John CORBLY, Jr.[33] They lived at Casstown, where probably all the children were born.

Children of David & Patsy (CLARK) KNIGHT were:

i. James Knight, no children as of 1864.
ii. Eliza Knight, b 20 Sep 1811; married & had children by 1864.
iii. Priscilla Knight, b 21 Nov 1814; no children as of 1864.
iv. Nancy Knight, b 27 Mar 1817; no children as of 1864.
v. Susanna Knight, b 6 Dec 1819; no children as of 1864.
vi. Johnson C. Knight, b 23 Aug 1822; married and had 2 children by 1864.
vii. Rebecca Knight, b 27 June 1825, married & had one child by 1864.
viii. Patsy Knight, b 23 Jan 1828; no children as of 1864.
ix. Mary Knight, b 23 Aug 1830; married & had one child by 1864.

2. ORGIA CLARK

Orgia was born 27 Sep 1789 in Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA. He died after February 1859 (deed) probably in Anderson Township, Hamilton Co.,Ohio. He was married about 1815, probably in Hamilton County, to Sarah MUCHMORE, who also died after February 1859. There is a Muchmore Road in Indian Hill, a suburban section of Cincinnati, suggesting that the Muchmores were an early family in the area.

Orgia, the origin of whose name would be interesting to know, proved the will of Silas GUERIN in Hamilton County in April 1815.[36] He bought 40 acres in Section 4 of Columbia Township, which is adjacent to Anderson Township, from Benjamin MUCHMORE in July 1815.[37] Benjamin may have been his father-in-law or brother-in-law. Orgia's father as Justice of the Peace in Hamilton County had married Phebe GARARD & Daniel MUCHMORE in December 1807; Daniel may also have been a relative.

Orgia appears in the 1820 census in Columbia Township, Hamilton Co.(p139) with a boy and a girl both under ten years of age. He sold two acres in Section 4 of Columbia Township in July 1826 to Sally WELLINGTON.[38] Four days later he bought 53 acres of "James Clark's land" in Anderson Township from John DAY.[39] From the 1790s through 1820 there was another James Clark in the area besides Orgia's father, but this sounds like land his father had owned.

Together with his father or his brother James, Orgia witnessed the will of John BRIDGES in August 1823 in Hamilton County.[40] John was probably a relative of Elisha BRIDGES, husband of Orgia's sister Eliza. In March 1828 Orgia sold 40 acres in Section 4, Columbia Twp., to Littleberry O. DAY, this being part of the same tract from which he had sold land to Sally WELLINGTON.[41] In November 1850 Orgia sold 2 acres in Anderson Twp. to Nathaniel L. ABBOTT.[42] This seems to have been part of the land he had bought from John DAY. The 53 acres he and his wife Sarah sold in February 1859 to Justice HAHN definitely was.[43]

When Judge James Clark wrote his will in 1836, he mentioned his eldest son Orgia, but he made his sons James and Shelly his main heirs.

Children of Orgia & Sarah (MUCHMORE) CLARK, probably born in Hamilton Co., were:[44]

i. Eliza Clark, no children as of 1864.
ii. James Clark, b 19 Jan 1818; no children as of 1864.
iii. Nancy Clark, b 12 Feb 1820, married & had 6 children by 1864.
iv. Susanna Clark, b 13 Mar 1822, married & had 2 children by 1864.

3. ORSON CLARK

Orson was born 6 Feb 1792 in Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA, [45] and died 3 Mar 1864 at Newtonsville (Wayne Twp) Clermont Co.,Ohio.[46] He was married 15 May 1815 in Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co.,Ohio, to Nancy CORBLY, b 21 Jan 1800 in Miami Tp., Hamilton Co, Ohio, d 30 June 1877 in Newtonsville, daughter of the Rev. John CORBLY Jr. and his wife Elizabeth FERNSLER of Anderson Township.[47]

In May 1814 Orson, aged 22, bought 140 acres in Sec.4, Columbia Twp, next door to Anderson Twp., from Hannah HILDITCH.[48] He sold this land in Dec 1818 to John ARMSTRONG[49] and moved to Casstown, Miami County, Ohio, where he established a farm in wild country.[50] He resumed residence in Hamilton County briefly in Sep 1822-Jan 1823, owning 140 acres in the same location as before, but returned to Casstown.[51] In 1828, still residents of Miami Co., Orson and his wife sold her share of her father's estate to her brothers, Paul and Justus CORBLY.[52]

In 1829, after a decade in Miami County, Orson moved with his family south to a farm near Lebanon, Warren Co.,Ohio, and from there in 1832 to a farm near Withamsville, Clermont Co., a few miles east of Cincinnati. Finally in 1835, aged 42, he bought a farm at Newtonsville, Clermont Co., on Stonelick Creek which became the permanent family home and his final resting place.[53] He and his wife were founding members in 1853 of the Stonelick Baptist Church at Newtonsville (a branch of the Stonelick Church founded in 1836), and for several of its first years Orson was one of the church's three Trustees.[54]

A photograph of Orson and his wife, taken perhaps about 1840, appears in the Corbly Genealogy. They seem to have imbued a sense of family in their children. It was one of their children who in 1858 assembled a record of Judge James Clark's and the Rev. John Corbly Jr.'s descendants which was invaluable to the compiler of the Corbly Genealogy. Through their children, only fond memories of Orson's father, the Judge, were passed on. No explanation has been found for why the Judge, when writing his will in 1836, disinherited Orson. An account book which he kept in 1818-1825 has survived and has an entry "Orson Clark (son): cash advances."[55] Perhaps Orson hit him often for cash. James may also have made a contribution toward Orson's purchase of his final farm in 1835. If so, this would explain why Orson did not number with his brothers James and Shelly as the Judge's main heirs. It would not explain, however, the omission of Orson's name in an otherwise complete recitation in the Judge's will of his children's names.

Orson's and his wife Nancy's wills have survived. They reflect the deaths of their sons Newton and Isaiah between the dates of writing, 1856 and 1876. Both left cash to their grandson Alfred, who had been orphaned young, but Nancy added a requirement that he appear in person to collect it, implying that Alfred of late had been shunning the family. Orson's will shows that he owned several hundred acres on the west side of Stonelick Creek.[56]

Children of Orson & Nancy (CORBLY) CLARK were:

i. Corbly W. Clark, b 22 Feb 1817, Columbia Township; d 9 Sept 1849, probably in Clermont Co, aged 32. He m 20 Feb 1842 Eliza L. WELLS.
ii. Elizabeth Clark, b 26 Oct 1818, Columbia Township; d 27 Nov 1894 at Newtonsville, m 11 Dec 1849 William ROUDEBUSH.
iii. James Clark, b 13 Jly 1820, Casstown, Miami Co.,Oh; d 8 May 1907 at Granville, Licking Co.,Oh; m 27 Apr 1847, to Martha Jane IRWIN.

iv. Julia Ann Clark, b 3 Dec 1822, Casstown, d 5 Sep 1843 at Newtonsville, Clermont Co., aged 21; unmarried.
v. Thompson Clark, b 23 Aug 1824, Casstown, d 21 Aug 1849, probably at Newtonsville, aged 24; never married.
vi. Susanna Clark, b 31 Jly 1826, Casstown, d 9 Mar 1841 at Newtonsville, aged 14.
vii. Newton Clark, b 26 Sep 1828, Casstown, d 27 Feb 1859, aged 29; married 12 Feb 1852 perhaps in Clermont Co., to Sarah SHRINER; no children.
viii. Shelly Clark, b 6 Oct 1830, Lebanon, Warren Co, d there 25 Jly 1831, aged 9 months.
ix. Benjamin Franklin Clark, b 26 June 1832, near Withamsville, Clermont Co., d 16 Apr 1916, Newtonsville; m 16 Dec 1856 Sarah Anshutz ROUDEBUSH.
x. Mary Minerva Clark, b 2 May 1834 near Withamsville, d 6 Sep 1849, Newtonsville, aged 15.
xi. Christopher Columbus Clark, b 10 Jly 1836, near Withamsville, d 27 Jne 1907, Indian Hill, Clermont Co.; m 30 Dec 1857 Rachel Olger AYERS.
xii. Isaiah Johnson Clark, b 1 Sep 1838, Newtonsville, d there 8 Oct 1860, aged 22; never married.
xiii. Nancy Jane Clark, b 14 Feb 1841, Newtonsville; d 25 Jan 1894, Granville, Licking Co. Oh.; m 4 Mar 1862, George H. SAPP.

4. ELIZA CLARK

Eliza was born 22 Aug 1794, Nottoway Parish, Southampton Co.,VA,[58] and died after July 1836 (date of her father's will) probably in Hamilton County, Ohio. She was married about 1812, probably in Hamilton Co., to Elisha BRIDGES.[59]

Eliza and her husband are listed in Anderson Township, Hamilton Co., in the 1820 census (p151) next to the households of John BRIDGES and Samuel JOHNSON (Eliza's uncle) and near Eliza's father. One boy aged under ten is shown at home. John BRIDGES, who died in 1823 and whose will had been witnessed by Eliza's father and her brother Orgia, may have been Elisha's brother or father.

In the 1830 census Eliza and Elisha were still next door to Samuel JOHNSON and had Martha JOHNSON on the other side (Newtown, p163). Their household included 3 boys under fifteen and 2 girls 15-20 and one 5-10. Nearby was the household of Benjamin BRIDGES, perhaps Elisha's brother, and not very far away was the young household of Charles BRIDGES, possibly a nephew.

Children of Elisha & Eliza (CLARK) BRIDGES, probably all born in Anderson Township[60] were:

i. Patsy Bridges, b 27 Jly 1813, married & had 8 children by 1864.
ii. Susanna Bridges, b 18 May 1815, married & had 6 children by 1864.
iii. Ann Bridges, b 9 Nov 1817, no children as of 1864.
iv. James Clark Bridges, b 17 Aug 1819, married & had 7 children by 1864.
v. Nancy Bridges, b 26 Dec 1821, no children as of 1864.
vi. John Bridges, b 10 Jly 1823, no children as of 1864.
vii. Elisha Bridges, b 3 Dec 1825, no children as of 1864.
viii. Judith Bridges, b 4 Jly 1828, no children as of 1864.
ix. Rebecca Bridges, b 4 Jly 1828 (twin), no children as of 1864.
x. Mary Bridges, married & had 2 children by 1864.
xi. Benjamin Bridges
xii. Eliza Bridges.

6. JAMES CLARK

James was born 3 Feb 1800, in Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co.,Ohio[61]. He died not long before April 1856, evidently in Anderson Township[62], and is buried with his parents at Clough Creek Cemetery. He was married about 1822, no doubt in Hamilton Co., to Mary MILLSPAUGH, who died after April 1856 and probably after January 1874.[63] She may have been the older sister of Sarah MILLSPAUGH, whom James' brother Shelly married a few years later.

In April 1827 James' cattle mark was registered in next door Columbia Township[64] where he continued to live for a while. If he was there in 1830, his land was probably contiguous to Anderson Township. The census that year indicates his household was located between those of his brother Orgia and his aunt, Judith BARROW; Orgia also owned land in Columbia Township.

In December 1833 and April 1838 James' father sold him one acre and 63 acres, respectively, in Anderson Township.[65] His father made him and his brother Shelly his main heirs when writing his will in 1836.

Children of James & Sarah (MILLSPAUGH) CLARK, probably all born in Hamilton Co:[66]

i. Julia Ann Clark, no children as of 1864.
ii. George W. Clark, b c1826, d after 1862; had children
iii. Merritt Clark, no children as of 1864.
iv. Orson M. Clark, bc1830, d after Jan 1874; m 1st Rebecca HIBBEN; 2nd by 1874 to Amelia ———.
v. William Oliver Clark, b c1833, d after 1858; had a child
vi. Eliza Jane Clark, b c1836, unmarried as of July 1856[67]; later married and had one child by 1864.
vii. Artemus Clark, b pre1835; acquired 37 acres in Anderson or Columbia Tp in April 1856 from his older brother George; mentioned as a land owner there in ec 1862, when George sold 37 acres just east of Artemus' land, "less the burying ground"[68] viii. Warner Clark, b after April 1835, as he was still a minor in April 1856[69]; had moved to Indiana by Jan 1874[70], a decision unrelated to the fact that his great-uncle and namesake, the soldier's son Warner Clark, had lived in Indiana, since the elder Warner Clark had died a half century earlier.

7. JOHNSON CLARK

Johnson was born 25 May 1802 in Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co.,Ohio,[71], and died after 1840, judging from his children's birth years, and probably outside Hamilton County, since unlike his brothers James and Shelly, he is not buried at Clough Creek Cemetery, where his parents are buried. He was married, first, on 10 Aug 1824 in Clermont Co., to Lucy McMAHON, at which time he was described as a resident of Hamilton Co., and second, on 26 Jne 1832 in Clermont Co., to Rhoda CROSLEY, widow of Abraham COVALT, whom Rhoda had married there on 10 Nov 1825.[72]

Learning more about Johnson might well resolve the mystery surrounding the origins of Rachel AYERS, wife of Christopher C. Clark, son of Johnson's brother Orson. Rachel appears in the 1850 census in the home of Frazier and Nancy COVALT of Stonelick, Clermont County. She may have been an orphan and presumably was related to either Frazier or Nancy. As will be seen, her birth in May 1836 may have occurred at Piqua, Miami Co.,Ohio. Orson Clark had lived in Miami Co. from 1819 until 1829, after which he lived in Clermont Co., but he may have stayed in touch with friends in Miami County. There is no reason to suppose that Johnson lived anywhere but in Clermont County after leaving Hamilton County at some point following his first marriage in 1824. But a period of residence in Miami County should not be ruled out. Because of the name "COVALT," his second wife is a candidate to be the person who introduced Rachel AYERS and Christopher CLARK.

Children of Johnson & Lucy (McMAHON) CLARK were:

i. George W. Clark, b 4 Dec 1825; it is confusing that his first cousin, son of James Clark Jr., was also named George W. Clark; the latter lived in Hamilton County, whereas this George seems to have lived in Clermont County; married and had 4 children by 1864.[74] ii. Rebecca Clark, b 24 Sep 1828; married & had 4 children by 1864.
iii. Lucy Clark, b 17 Jne 1831; married and had 2 children by 1864.

Children of John & Rhoda (CROSLEY-COVALT) CLARK:

iv. Nancy Stockton Clark, b 7 Apr 1833; no children as of 1864.
v. Elizabeth Clark, no children as of 1864.
vi. Orson Wilson Thompson Clark, b 1 Jne 1837; no children as of 1864.
vii. Salima Clark
viii. James Clark
ix. Sargent Clark
x. Shelly Clark
xi. Louisa Clark.

9. SHELLY CLARK

Shelly was born 22 Oct 1806 in Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co.,Ohio. He died 19 Jan 1847 apparently in Hamilton Co., and is buried at Clough Creek Cemetery in Anderson Twp with his parents and brother James. He was married about 1828 to Sarah MILLSPAUGH, who may have been a sister of Mary MILLSPAUGH, wife of his brother James.[75]

In March 1831 Shelly attested to the will of Josiah CROSLEY in Hamilton Co.[76] Josiah may have been related to Rhoda CROSLEY, second wife of Shelly's brother Johnson. In an account book kept in 1818-1825 by Shelly's father, Josiah, Abel and Simeon CROSLEY appear as receiving credit for purchases of brandy, meal, and peach trees, respectively, suggesting a lively Crosley-Clark connection.

In November 1835 Shelly's father sold him one acre having a grist mill in Hamilton County.[78] This was only a few months after he had written his will in which he made Shelly and his brother James his main heirs. He witnessed Shelly's will in Oct 1846. In Feb 1864, long after Shelly's death, his "heirs"--not further identified--sold 3.7 acres in Anderson Twp. belonging to his estate.[79]

Children of Shelly & Sarah (MILLSPAUGH) CLARK, probably born in the 1830s and 1840s in Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co Ohio, were:

i. Harvey Clark
ii. Courtlen Clark; married and had one child by 1864; the name looks like a corruption of "Courtland"; not known whether this was a man or a woman.
iii. Pellina Clark
iv. Celesta Clark
v. Virginia Clark.

NOTES & REFERENCES

1. For James', his wife's, all his children's, and most of his grandchildren's dates of birth, see: family Bible record kept, according to tradition, by James himself but more probably by one of James' children (my guess is by Orson or his wife, in light of the record's omissions--see below) in a Bible published at Philadelphia in 1811 and, as of 1910, in the possession of Mr. W. Riley Meeks of Columbus, Ohio, a descendant; as transcribed on 14 Nov 1910 by Mrs. Walter M. Morgan (nee Lillie Clark) of Columbus for her father, Benjamin F. Clark of Newtonsville, Ohio (a son of Orson's) who inserted the transcription into his own family Bible, today (1985) in the possession of his grandson, Ernest J. Clark, Jr. of Baltimore.

   At the end of her transcription Mrs. Morgan wrote: "This is the complete and exact written record of the Bible which bears the following data--'Philadelphia, printed and published by Matthew Carey, No.122 Market Street, 1811.' " Her transcription begins as follows: "Copied from the old family Bible - James Clark's (traditionally). FAMILY RECORD: BIRTHS:" Notwithstanding Mrs. Morgan's assertion about the completeness of her transcription, there appears to have been a column or page for marriages which she did not include. Ernest Clark's 1929 letter to Mrs. McFarland recites the birth dates of Judge James Clark's nine children; then gives the names of all their spouses (although no marriage dates, let alone places), and closes the paragraph with the statement, "The above record is from the James Clark Bible."

   The writer's hypothesis is that either Ernest Clark or his genealogist, Francis Culver, checked the family record in the Bible with Riley Meeks of Columbus, owner of the Bible, and obtained the additional data giving the marriages.

   The writer, who has studied this transcription, has deposited photocopies of it and other important Clark family Bible records in the Library of Congress and DAR Library, Washington, DC, and the Ohio Genealogical Society Library at Mansfield Ohio. The last entry is for the birth of a son of Johnson Clark in June 1837, except for the notation of the death of Shelly Clark in Jan 1847. As James' wife died in Jan 1837, it is unlikely she was the main keeper of the record. It seems unlikely that James was the main keeper, as he had more grandchildren born after 1837 and he did not die until 1852.

   Furthermore, the record includes all the children of his son Orson, whom James for some reason disinherited in his will written July 1836, and none of the children of his sons James Jr. and Shelly, whom he made his principal heirs. The provisions of the will may not have caused bad blood between Orson and his brothers James and Shelly, but they may have led to a sufficient cooling of the relationship so that Orson and family did not stay abreast of the births of James' and Shelly's children. The writer can think of no other explanation for the omissions by the keeper of the record, who was meticulous.

   The entry for James' birth reads: "James Clark son of John and Rebecca Clark was born September 3d 1765." Thus, it is evidence of not only date of birth, but also parentage. Further evidence of parentage is John's will. Other evidence of date of birth, as well as evidence of death date, is James' gravestone, which is still (1983) legible.

The original is either in the Anderson Township Historical Society, to which James V. Clark of Granville, Ohio, donated some of Judge James Clark's papers shortly before his death in 1982, or in the possession of Mr. Clark's daughter Phoebe, i.e., Mrs. Joseph P. McMahon, 325 West Broadway, Granville, Ohio 43023.

    James V. Clark told the Tri-State Trader in 1977 that a first cousin once removed, whom he did not identify, had recently sent him a packet of original papers belonging to his ancestor, Judge James Clark. The diary was one of them; others are cited elsewhere in these notes, Mrs. McMahon having kindly sent photocopies to the writer. The writer has deposited a set of copies, and also of James V. Clark's genealogical compilations, in the Library of Congress, the DAR Library, and the Ohio Genealogical Society Library.

32. Genealogical chart in the form of a tree showing the descendants of Judge James Clark, signed "David Hand, July 1859" but, from internal evidence, compiled in early 1864. The writer received a copy of the chart from the estate of the late Horace F. Clark of Cincinnati, a great-great-grandson of the Judge through his son Orson. David Hand may have been the same person as the David Hand of Clermont County, Ohio, whose granddaughter, Martha Jane Irwin of same, was married in 1847 in Clermont County, to James Clark, son of the Judge's son Orson.

    When compared with other information available to the writer, the chart has proven wholly accurate, except that the order of birth of some of the children is slightly off. The chart is an artistic rendition of a tree, with perfect lettering, but contains atrocious misspellings of names. It gives no dates and places, and no surnames except the Judge's, only the first names of his children and grandchildren. Without giving their names, it shows branches for those of the Judge's great-grandchildren who had been born by early 1864.

    David Hand prepared an identical chart showing the descendants of the Rev. John Corbly Jr. Corbly was the father-in-law of the Judge's son Orson. There is detailed information about Orson and his descendants in: Leola W. Murphy, The Life and Times of Rev. John Corbly and the John Corbly Genealogy, Knightstown, Ind., 1970, which contains the following statement on pp.152-153: "The names of the children and grandchildren of John Corbly Jr., next page, were compiled by a member of the Orson Clark family in 1858 and have been contributed for this genealogy." She unfortunately does not tell us by whom.

    In any case, it is clear that Orson, his wife—nee Nancy Corbly—or one of their children did keep careful Clark family records and that a descendant had those records or copies of them well into the 20th century, probably in the form of a family Bible record. (The late Ernest J. Clark of Baltimore, grandson of Orson, is a strong candidate.) This fact is discussed here because it lends further credibility to the David Hand chart.The writer has deposited copies of both charts in the Library of Congress, the DAR Library, and the OGS Library.

BRITTON CEMETERY
GOSHEN TWP., CHAMPAIGN COUNTY

William B. Saxbe, Jr., C.G.*
James O. Mahoy*

According to the History of Champaign County, Ohio (W.H.Beers & Co., Chicago, 1881, p.588), the first cemetery in Goshen Township was on the Brittin farm. The name of the first person buried there has been lost, but the second was Joseph PORTER, in September 1809. The cemetery is one mile northeast of Mechanicsburg, on a ridge overlooking Little Darby Creek to the south. It is approximately 400 yards north of Ohio Route 4, and is approachable only across cultivated fields. It is heavily grown up with trees and brush; at some point(s) in the past trees, rocks and soil from adjacent areas have been dumped there. Only a few stones are standing; most are flat or buried, up to a foot in depth. More bases and footstones can be found than headstones. Some plots were evidently marked with roughly dressed fieldstones without inscriptions. The older markers are sandstone decorated with the classical urns and willows; the more recent are marble. No doubt other souls and stones lie there, but their identification—barring the use of heavy equipment—must await the general resurrection.

Stones were read from north to south, beginning with the most easterly, Row 1. Rows are inferred rather than observed, since few stones are in their original location. Most stones probably faced the east.

NIHISER CEMETERY
FALLS TWP., HOCKING COUNTY

Judy Maniskas*

The cemetery is located in Falls Township off Pleasant Valley Rd., in Section 19. A fence surrounds the small area. According to the Hocking County Atlas (1876) a 41 acre farm located here was owned by G.(George) Nihiser and the adjoining 42 acre farm in Laurel Township was owned by S.(Stephen) Nihiser. The farm where the cemetery is located is now occupied by Mr. Ricie Dalton.

GOOD HOPE CEMETERY
BOKES CREEK TWP., LOGAN COUNTY

Thomas L. Ramsey*

Good Hope Cemetery, originally known as the Ramsey Graveyard, is located in Bokes Creek Township on State Route 292 south of Ridgeway in Virginia Military Survey no. 9938. It became known as Good Hope from the name of the adjacent school. In Oct 1894, William Ramsey sold the one acre cemetery to the township for "Cemetery purposes only... except for the lot on which my father Andrew RAMSEY is buried..." (Logan Co. Deeds v.85 p101).

Copied 27 May 1980.

PIONEER OHIO NEWSPAPERS
1793-1810
Genealogical and Historical Abstracts
by Karen Mauer Green

These abstracts of the earliest newspapers in Ohio include over 30,000 references to the early settlers of Ohio and the Northwest Territory. The entries include news of residents from all the Ohio settlements. The bulk of the information concerns ordinary people such as farmers, merchants and artisans, but prominent Ohioans are also well represented.

The book contains a wealth of information on these pioneers in the form of marriages, obituaries, elections, court records, probate records, early advertisements, heirs, estate settlements, divorce, local events and disputes, military expeditions and much, much more. Each abstract contains enough information to explain the context of the advertisement or article. A complete index of persons, place-names and subjects is included in this 300 page, hardcover book.

Pre-publication price is $21.50 (plus $1.50 shipping and handling) until May 1, 1986, and $25.50 (plus $1.50 shipping and handling) thereafter. Texas residents must add 5% sales tax. To be printed in March for delivery in June, 1986. Reserve your copy early!!
